Public Finance & ESG Reporting Principles Training Course

Introduction

Public Finance & ESG Reporting Principles Training Course equips finance leaders, public sector professionals, sustainability officers, and policy advisors with advanced competencies in public financial management, environmental, social, and governance frameworks, sustainable finance, climate finance, fiscal transparency, impact measurement, integrated reporting, risk governance, green budgeting, and responsible investment strategies. This course emphasizes global best practices, regulatory compliance, data-driven reporting, performance accountability, financial resilience, public value creation, and stakeholder trust in both public and private sector institutions.

Through applied learning, participants gain practical expertise in ESG standards alignment, sustainability disclosures, fiscal sustainability modeling, public sector accounting reforms, governance risk controls, climate risk reporting, social impact assessment, and financial integrity frameworks. The program integrates international benchmarks such as IPSAS, IFRS Sustainability Standards, GRI, SASB, TCFD, SDGs, and green finance taxonomies to support transparent budgeting, ethical investment, sustainable procurement, and long-term fiscal stability.

Course Objectives
