Course Curriculum & Modules

Livelihood Programming for Refugees Training Course

Introduction

Livelihood Programming for Refugees is a comprehensive training course designed to equip humanitarian professionals, NGO staff, and community organizers with practical knowledge and skills to enhance refugee self-reliance and economic empowerment. Livelihood Programming for Refugees Training Course emphasizes strategic planning, innovative interventions, and sustainable livelihood solutions tailored to refugee populations in diverse socio-economic contexts. Participants will gain insights into international standards, policy frameworks, and evidence-based practices that ensure effective livelihood programming and measurable impact.

The training blends theoretical foundations with practical applications, enabling participants to design, implement, and evaluate livelihood programs that address both immediate needs and long-term resilience. By leveraging sector-specific tools, case studies, and participatory approaches, trainees will develop the capacity to foster economic opportunities, strengthen community structures, and support refugees in achieving sustainable livelihoods. This course is essential for those committed to promoting inclusion, equity, and social protection in humanitarian contexts.
