Course Curriculum & Modules

Advanced Victim Advocacy and Rights Training Course

Introduction

Victim advocacy is a crucial field that ensures victims of crime receive the justice, support, and resources they deserve. Advanced Victim Advocacy and Rights Training Course is designed for professionals seeking to deepen their understanding of victim rights, trauma-informed care, legal processes, crisis intervention, and multidisciplinary collaboration. This intensive course combines theoretical insights with practical case studies to empower participants with tools to advocate effectively for victims within the criminal justice system, healthcare, and social services. Through evidence-based practices and updated policy frameworks, this training supports the delivery of compassionate, culturally sensitive, and legally sound advocacy services.

This program emphasizes victim empowerment, restorative justice, policy advocacy, and intersectional approaches to working with survivors of violent crime, domestic abuse, sexual assault, human trafficking, and other trauma. With modules covering trauma-informed response, legal rights of victims, courtroom advocacy, psychosocial support, and collaborative justice, participants will emerge equipped to lead in reforming victim support services across varied sectors. The course integrates current global trends, best practices, and survivor-centered methodologies to ensure high-impact training outcomes.
