Democratic Backsliding and Authoritarian Resurgence Training Course

Introduction

In an increasingly volatile geopolitical landscape, the erosion of democratic norms and the rise of authoritarian tendencies pose a significant threat to global stability and human rights. Democratic Backsliding and Authoritarian Resurgence Training Course is designed to equip participants with the critical knowledge and practical tools to analyze, anticipate, and counter these dangerous trends. We'll delve into the nuanced processes through which established democracies weaken "from within" and explore the strategies employed by illiberal leaders to consolidate power. This program focuses on understanding the underlying socioeconomic, political, and technological drivers of this phenomenon, providing a framework for robust, evidence-based responses.

This course is distinguished by its focus on comparative case studies and policy-relevant analysis. By examining diverse global examples, from Eastern Europe to Latin America and Asia, participants will gain a holistic understanding of the patterns and unique variations of democratic decay. Our curriculum emphasizes the role of civil society, judicial independence, and media freedom in resisting authoritarianism. Through a blend of theoretical frameworks and hands-on exercises, we aim to empower a new generation of leaders, activists, and policymakers to become effective guardians of democratic resilience and human dignity in the face of political challenges.
