Ethical Leadership in Trade Unions Training Course

Introduction

The modern labour movement is operating in a rapidly changing environment shaped by digital transformation, governance reforms, social justice advocacy, workplace diversity, climate resilience, artificial intelligence, collective bargaining innovation, transparency, accountability, anti-corruption compliance, and sustainable labour practices. Trade union leaders are expected to demonstrate ethical decision-making, transformational leadership, stakeholder engagement, conflict resolution, and strategic governance while protecting workers' rights in increasingly complex industrial relations systems.

Ethical Leadership in Trade Unions Training Course equips union officials, shop stewards, labour representatives, and emerging worker leaders with practical competencies in ethical governance, inclusive leadership and digital advocacy skills required to be ethical in the society. The course combines global best practices, contemporary labour trends, and real-world case studies to strengthen ethical leadership culture, improve accountability mechanisms, and promote resilient and member-centered trade union institutions in the era of globalization and future work transformation.

Course Duration

5 Days

Course Objectives

By the end of the training, participants will be able to:

- Strengthen ethical governance frameworks within trade unions.
- Apply transformational leadership strategies in labour organizations.
- Promote transparency and accountability systems in union operations.
- Enhance collective bargaining ethics and responsible negotiations.
- Develop anti-corruption compliance mechanisms in trade union management.
- Improve stakeholder engagement and social dialogue processes.
- Integrate gender equality and diversity inclusion into union leadership.
- Utilize digital leadership and online advocacy tools effectively.
- Build conflict resolution and mediation competencies for industrial harmony.
