Course Curriculum & Modules

Gender and Negotiation Skills Training Course

Introduction

Effective negotiation is a critical skill in professional, social, and personal contexts, and understanding gender dynamics is essential to mastering it. Gender and Negotiation Skills training course equips participants with practical strategies, communication techniques, and empowerment tools to navigate negotiation scenarios confidently. Through interactive exercises, case studies, and real-world simulations, learners will explore how gender influences negotiation outcomes, develop assertiveness without conflict, and enhance decision-making and influence. This course is designed to address gender biases, foster inclusive negotiation practices, and cultivate equity-driven outcomes across diverse professional and community environments.

Participants will gain a deep understanding of power dynamics, emotional intelligence, and strategic communication, while learning to leverage collaboration, persuasion, and negotiation frameworks. By integrating evidence-based methodologies, the course ensures participants acquire skills to negotiate successfully in multicultural, multi-gender, and hierarchical settings. Learners will engage in hands-on simulations, analyze gender-focused negotiation case studies, and receive personalized feedback to reinforce practical learning. By the end, participants will confidently apply inclusive negotiation strategies to achieve mutually beneficial outcomes while promoting gender equity in professional and societal contexts.
