Governance & Board Management in MFIs Training Course

Introduction

Governance & Board Management in MFIs is a strategic training program designed to equip microfinance leaders with advanced governance skills, board oversight techniques, and regulatory compliance capabilities crucial for strengthening institutional sustainability. As MFIs expand in scale, digital transformation, and social impact responsibilities, the need for effective governance structures, transparent decision-making, ethical leadership, and risk-aligned management practices becomes more critical than ever. Governance & Board Management in MFIs Training Course emphasizes board accountability, performance measurement, stakeholder engagement, and governance optimization aligned with global microfinance standards and best practices.

Participants gain practical knowledge on board composition, executive oversight, institutional risk governance, strategic planning, social performance monitoring, and compliance with microfinance regulatory frameworks. Through case studies, real-world examples, and scenario-based learning, this course enhances the ability of board members, senior managers, and governance officers to make informed decisions, strengthen organizational resilience, and guide MFIs toward long-term financial inclusion outcomes.
