Course Curriculum & Modules

Human Rights and Workers' Rights Protection Training Course

Introduction

Training provides a critical framework for aligning business operations with international standards. This course dives deep into the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights, empowering participants to navigate the complex intersection of corporate social responsibility (CSR) and legal compliance. By fostering an environment of ethical leadership and social justice, organizations can mitigate the risks of modern slavery, discrimination, and labor exploitation while enhancing their brand integrity in a competitive global market.

Human Rights and Workers' Rights Protection Training Course emphasizes due diligence processes, ensuring that decent work conditions and collective bargaining rights are upheld across all tiers of operation. Through a focus on equitable practices, workplace inclusivity, and grievance mechanisms, we provide the tools necessary to transform policy into practice. Participants will leave with a robust understanding of how to protect fundamental freedoms, drive ESG (Environmental, Social, and Governance) excellence, and champion the human spirit within the professional sphere.

Course Duration

5 days

Course Objectives

- Master the application of International Labour Organization (ILO) standards in daily operations.
