Industrial Relations for HR Professionals Training Course

Introduction

Industrial Relations (IR) is a critical pillar in modern Human Resource Management, ensuring workplace harmony, employee engagement, legal compliance, and sustainable productivity. In today's rapidly evolving business environment driven by labor law reforms, digital HR transformation, gig economy expansion, and unionized workforce dynamics, HR professionals must develop advanced capabilities in collective bargaining, conflict resolution, grievance handling, and employee relations strategy. Industrial Relations for HR Professionals Training Course is designed to equip HR practitioners with practical and strategic competencies to manage industrial relations in compliance-driven, high-performance organizations.

With increasing global emphasis on ESG (Environmental, Social & Governance), ethical labor practices, workforce well-being, and industrial peace, organizations are under pressure to build strong IR frameworks. HR professionals are expected to act as strategic mediators between management and employees while ensuring adherence to labor legislation, trade union regulations, dispute resolution mechanisms, and organizational policies. This program provides a comprehensive, hands-on approach using real-world case studies, simulations, and best practices to strengthen industrial harmony, negotiation power, and workforce stability in both unionized and non-unionized environments.
