Informal Housing and Settlement Planning Training Course

Introduction

Informal housing and settlements are central to contemporary urban development, housing affordability, land management, infrastructure provision, and inclusive urban planning. Informal Housing and Settlement Planning Training Course provides comprehensive, practical knowledge on informal settlement upgrading, slum transformation, housing policy, land tenure, spatial planning, infrastructure development, climate resilience, and community-led urban development. Participants will explore strategic approaches for improving living conditions while promoting secure tenure, affordable housing, social inclusion, environmental sustainability, and resilient settlement growth.

The course integrates modern urban planning tools, participatory settlement planning, Geographic Information Systems (GIS), housing finance, community engagement, infrastructure planning, and Public-Private Partnerships (Public-Private Partnerships) for sustainable housing delivery. Through international case studies and practical applications, participants will examine how governments, development agencies, private-sector stakeholders, and communities can collaborate to address informal housing challenges while supporting inclusive cities, sustainable development, and improved urban governance.

Course Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Understand informal housing systems, settlement dynamics, and urbanization trends.
- Apply strategic informal settlement planning and upgrading approaches.
- Analyze land tenure, property rights, and housing security challenges.
- Develop inclusive and participatory settlement planning frameworks.
- Apply GIS, spatial analysis, and urban mapping techniques.
- Design affordable housing and infrastructure development strategies.
- Integrate climate resilience, disaster-risk reduction, and environmental sustainability.
- Evaluate housing policies, regulations, and institutional frameworks.
- Apply community-led development and stakeholder engagement approaches.
- Assess housing finance and innovative affordable-housing mechanisms.
- Develop Public-Private Partnerships for housing and settlement improvement.
- Apply monitoring, evaluation, and urban development indicators.
- Formulate integrated strategies for sustainable informal settlement transformation.
