Informal Settlement Upgrading Training Course

Introduction

Informal settlements continue to pose significant challenges in urban development due to rapid urbanization, inadequate infrastructure, and limited access to essential services. Informal Settlement Upgrading Training Course provides participants with in-depth knowledge and practical skills to design, plan, and implement effective upgrading initiatives. The course emphasizes sustainable urban planning, community engagement, and policy-driven approaches to address the socio-economic and environmental challenges faced by residents in informal settlements. Participants will gain insights into innovative upgrading strategies, financing mechanisms, and legal frameworks critical for improving living conditions while promoting inclusive urban growth.

The course is designed for urban planners, local government officials, civil society organizations, and development practitioners aiming to enhance their capacity in informal settlement management. Through case studies, interactive exercises, and practical assignments, participants will explore methodologies for upgrading informal settlements without displacing communities. The training integrates modern tools for spatial planning, stakeholder consultation, and participatory design. By completing this course, participants will be equipped to drive transformation in urban areas, promote social equity, and ensure resilient and sustainable communities.
