Innovation Ecosystem Mapping for Public Sector Training Course

Introduction

In today's rapidly evolving public sector, the need for strategic innovation is more critical than ever. Governments and public organizations must adapt to emerging technologies, citizen expectations, and global trends to deliver efficient and sustainable services. Innovation Ecosystem Mapping equips public sector leaders with the tools and frameworks to identify key stakeholders, assess innovation capacity, and develop actionable strategies that foster collaboration, digital transformation, and policy alignment. Innovation Ecosystem Mapping for Public Sector Training Course emphasizes the integration of data-driven insights, systems thinking, and stakeholder engagement to build resilient and forward-looking public institutions.

Participants will gain practical knowledge in mapping innovation networks, analyzing interdependencies, and leveraging partnerships for impactful policy and service outcomes. Through real-world case studies and hands-on exercises, learners will understand how to identify innovation gaps, promote cross-sector collaboration, and measure the success of public sector innovation initiatives. By the end of the course, participants will be prepared to lead innovation strategies that enhance organizational efficiency, public trust, and citizen satisfaction.

Course Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:
