Microfinance Regulation and Supervision Training Course

Introduction

Microfinance Regulation and Supervision Training Course provides comprehensive insights into international standards and frameworks, including Basel guidelines, for effective regulation and oversight of microfinance institutions. Participants will gain expertise in regulatory compliance, risk management, capital adequacy, liquidity monitoring, and operational resilience, equipping them to strengthen institutional soundness and financial stability. The course emphasizes global best practices, emerging regulatory trends, and risk-based supervisory approaches to ensure sustainable microfinance operations and protect stakeholders' interests.

Through interactive case studies, practical exercises, and analytical frameworks, participants will learn how to design, implement, and evaluate supervision strategies that align with international standards. The program addresses topics such as prudential norms, governance, internal controls, consumer protection, anti-money laundering, and reporting requirements. Participants will leave prepared to enhance transparency, operational efficiency, and compliance effectiveness within microfinance institutions and supervisory bodies.
