Program Evaluation for Nonprofits Training Course

Introduction

Effective program evaluation is essential for nonprofits striving to maximize social impact, demonstrate accountability, and secure funding. In today's data-driven environment, nonprofit organizations must go beyond anecdotal evidence and embrace systematic approaches to assess program effectiveness. Program Evaluation for Nonprofits Training Course equips participants with practical frameworks, analytical tools, and strategic insights to design, implement, and communicate evaluation results that inform decision-making and enhance organizational performance. Participants will learn to align program outcomes with organizational goals, measure social impact, and leverage evaluation findings to influence stakeholders, funders, and communities.

With the rise of impact measurement, data analytics, and evidence-based strategies, nonprofits are increasingly expected to prove the effectiveness of their initiatives. This course blends theory with hands-on application, case studies, and interactive exercises to ensure participants can translate evaluation insights into actionable improvements. By the end of the program, participants will confidently design evaluations, analyze program performance, and communicate findings effectively to optimize resources, improve program delivery, and achieve sustainable impact.

Course Duration

5 days
