Public Policy Analysis for Social Change Training Course

Introduction

Public Policy Analysis for Social Change Training Course is designed to equip participants with the essential frameworks and practical skills needed to critically analyze, design, and implement effective policies that address pressing societal challenges. In a world where data-driven decision-making and evidence-based policymaking are paramount, this program provides a comprehensive understanding of the policy lifecycle from problem identification and agenda setting to evaluation and reform. Participants will learn to navigate the complex dynamics of politics, economics, and social justice to become impactful agents of change within government, non-profit, and international organizations.

The curriculum focuses on developing a holistic policy toolkit, combining theoretical knowledge with practical application through real-world case studies. We will explore key concepts such as stakeholder engagement, policy impact assessment, and monitoring and evaluation (M&E) to ensure that policies not only respond to community needs but also achieve measurable, sustainable results. By mastering these skills, you will be empowered to influence policy discourse, advocate for marginalized communities, and contribute to building more equitable and resilient societies. This course is your pathway to a career in social policy, advocacy, and public sector leadership.
