Course Curriculum & Modules

Race and Crime: Systemic Issues and Reforms Training Course

Course Introduction

Systemic racism and its impact on the criminal justice system remain among the most pressing civil rights issues of our time. Race and Crime: Systemic Issues and Reforms Training Course is designed to explore how structural inequalities, racial profiling, mass incarceration, and biased policing practices contribute to racial disparities in justice outcomes. Through a comprehensive, data-driven, and historical lens, this course equips learners with actionable insights and solutions to drive equitable reforms.

Participants will engage with landmark case studies, cutting-edge research, and real-world applications to understand the intersection of race and criminal justice. With a strong emphasis on racial equity, reform strategies, social justice advocacy, and community engagement, the training promotes a deeper understanding of institutional racism and offers tools for transformative change within law enforcement, legal frameworks, and public policy.
