Sanctions Compliance for Banks Training Course

Introduction

In an increasingly interconnected global financial environment, Sanctions Compliance has become a critical pillar of banking risk management, regulatory compliance, financial crime prevention, and operational resilience. Sanctions Compliance for Banks Training Course equips banking professionals with advanced knowledge of international sanctions regimes, regulatory obligations, compliance governance, sanctions risk assessment, and technology-enabled compliance solutions to effectively identify, manage, and mitigate sanctions exposure.

The course provides practical insights into designing and strengthening sanctions compliance programs, implementing effective screening controls, escalation processes, investigation techniques, and regulatory reporting mechanisms. Through real-world case studies, participants will explore sanctions breaches, enforcement actions, emerging compliance challenges, and the impact of digital banking, cross-border payments, artificial intelligence (AI), and geopolitical risks on sanctions management. Participants will develop the capabilities required to build a proactive sanctions risk culture and support sustainable compliance excellence within modern banking institutions.

Course Duration

5 days
