Shop Steward Legal Responsibilities Training Course

Introduction

Trade unions and workplace representation structures play a critical role in maintaining industrial harmony, employee rights protection, and fair labour practices. The role of a Shop Steward is increasingly becoming more complex due to evolving labour laws, workplace compliance standards, collective bargaining frameworks, and conflict resolution demands. Shop Steward Legal Responsibilities Training Course is designed to equip Shop Stewards with advanced knowledge of their legal responsibilities, statutory obligations, employee representation rights, and dispute handling competencies within modern workplaces.

The programme also strengthens practical capability in dispute resolution techniques, grievance handling procedures, negotiation strategies, and conflict mediation skills. Participants will gain hands-on understanding of labour relations systems, disciplinary hearings, arbitration processes, and workplace advocacy mechanisms. The training blends theory and practice to ensure Shop Stewards can confidently represent employees while ensuring compliance with employment law, organisational policies, and industrial relations best practices.
