Strategic Campaigning for Labour Movements Training Course

Introduction

Strategic Campaigning for Labour Movements is a high-impact, capacity-building training designed to strengthen trade unions, labour organizers, worker rights advocates, and social justice leaders in designing and executing powerful, data-driven, and digitally enabled campaigns. Strategic Campaigning for Labour Movements Training Course equips participants with modern tools in labour mobilization, collective bargaining strategy, digital activism, narrative building, workplace organizing, and policy advocacy to win real-world improvements in wages, working conditions, and labour protections. It blends classical union organizing tactics with cutting-edge digital campaigning, social media strategy, and grassroots power mapping.

In today's rapidly changing world of work shaped by gig economy expansion, automation, informal labour growth, and global supply chains labour movements must evolve to remain effective and resilient. This training empowers participants to build winning campaign architectures, coalition networks, and pressure strategies that influence employers, governments, and multinational corporations. Using real-world case studies from successful labour struggles globally, participants will learn how to transform worker grievances into structured campaigns, policy wins, and sustainable labour power.
