Course Curriculum & Modules

Taxation of Non-Profit Organisations & Charities Training Course

Introduction

Taxation of Non-Profit Organisations & Charities Training Course is designed to provide an in-depth understanding of the unique tax frameworks, compliance obligations, and regulatory requirements governing non-profit entities. Participants will gain practical insights into the tax planning, reporting, and governance strategies essential for maintaining transparency and legal compliance in charitable operations. This program emphasizes real-world applications, case studies, and best practices to enhance the capacity of finance and management professionals in the non-profit sector.

The course also highlights emerging trends in non-profit taxation, including digital reporting, international compliance standards, and donor-related tax benefits. By exploring the intricacies of exemptions, deductions, and incentives, learners will be equipped to navigate complex tax scenarios, mitigate risks, and optimize financial management for charitable organisations. This training fosters a robust understanding of both domestic and international tax frameworks affecting non-profits, ensuring participants are well-prepared for regulatory audits and strategic decision-making.

Course Objectives

Upon completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- Understand the regulatory framework governing non-profit taxation.
- Identify tax-exempt statuses and eligibility criteria for charities.
- Navigate corporate income tax implications for non-profits.

- Comply with VAT/GST obligations applicable to charitable organisations.
- Implement proper record-keeping and reporting systems.
- Analyze donor contribution tax deductions and benefits.
- Apply cross-border taxation principles to international charitable operations.
- Recognize tax penalties, interest, and compliance risks.
- Integrate tax planning into strategic non-profit management.
- Address issues related to unrelated business income tax (UBIT).
- Conduct tax audits and respond to regulatory inquiries.
- Utilize technology and digital platforms for tax compliance.
