Trade Union Accounting and Reporting Training Course

Introduction

Trade Union Accounting and Reporting Training Course is designed to empower trade union leaders and financial officers with the critical competencies required to navigate the complexities of modern industrial relations and financial accountability. As global economic landscapes shift, trade unions face increasing pressure to adopt International Financial Reporting Standards and enhance Financial Reporting Quality to maintain stakeholder trust. This course bridges the gap between traditional bookkeeping and strategic financial management, ensuring that union resources are optimized for collective bargaining and membership services.

By integrating digital transformation in accounting with transparency-driven reporting, the curriculum addresses the unique fiscal challenges of the 2026 labor market. Participants will master the art of fiscal stewardship, learning to utilize financial analytics to advocate for worker rights and organizational sustainability. Through a blend of theoretical frameworks and hands-on applications, this course serves as a vital tool for the revitalization of trade union movements, fostering a culture of integrity, accountability, and strategic financial planning.

Course Duration

5 days
