Training Course on Leading Professional Learning in Instructional Strategies

Introduction

In today’s rapidly evolving educational landscape, empowering educators through evidence-based instructional strategies and transformative professional learning is essential for academic success. Training Course on Leading Professional Learning in Instructional Strategies equips education leaders, instructional coaches, and teacher mentors with the knowledge and tools to effectively lead professional learning communities (PLCs), enhance teaching practices, and improve student achievement. The course combines the latest trends in blended learning, data-driven instruction, and collaborative leadership to build instructional capacity across schools.

Participants will gain hands-on experience in designing, implementing, and evaluating impactful professional learning programs. Emphasizing instructional leadership, adult learning theory, differentiated instruction, and technology integration, the course prepares leaders to drive sustainable change and cultivate a growth-oriented learning culture. Through strategic modules and practical case studies, participants will emerge as catalysts for innovation and excellence in their educational institutions.

Course Objectives

Participants will be able to:

- Demonstrate knowledge of research-based instructional strategies.
- Design inclusive professional development plans aligned with school goals.
- Facilitate reflective practices through professional learning communities.
- Apply adult learning principles to professional training contexts.
- Lead instructional coaching cycles using data-informed decisions.
- Integrate edtech tools for scalable teacher development.
- Evaluate instructional practices through classroom walkthroughs and feedback loops.

• Analyze student data to improve teaching and learning outcomes.

- Promote equity-focused pedagogy in teacher learning.
- Use action research to drive continuous instructional improvement.
- Develop collaborative leadership strategies for team growth.
- Model culturally responsive teaching in professional settings.
- Build sustainable systems for ongoing teacher capacity-building.
