Urban Refugees and Sustainable Livelihood Training Course

Introduction

Urban refugees face immense challenges in securing sustainable livelihoods due to displacement, limited resources, social exclusion, and barriers in host communities. This training course equips participants with practical knowledge, hands-on strategies, and innovative tools to design, implement, and support livelihood programs that foster resilience, economic empowerment, and long-term stability for urban refugees. By integrating sustainable practices with human-centered approaches, the course strengthens the capacity of humanitarian workers, NGOs, community leaders, and policymakers to create inclusive solutions.

Urban Refugees and Sustainable Livelihood Training Course emphasizes socio-economic integration, entrepreneurship, capacity-building, resilience development, vocational training, and market access. Through a combination of theoretical insights, applied case studies, and practical exercises, learners will acquire transformative skills to address displacement challenges while promoting sustainability, gender equality, digital inclusion, and community-led development in urban contexts.

Course Objectives
